

	Judge. s. d.	Register. s. d.	Proctor. s. d.	Apparitor. s. d.
FOR the Administration of the Goods of every deceased Person within the said Arch-Deaconry, when the Goods exceed the Sum of 40 l. —	3—6	2—6
For proving of a Will, and granting Letters of Administration, Copy of the Inventory, and all Things any way touching or concerning the Premises, when the Goods do not exceed 40 l. to the Judge 2 s. 6 d. Register 2 s. 6 d. or 1 d. for 10 Lines. According to the Stat. of the 21 of Hen. VIII.	6—8	3—4
For an Acquittance or Letters Testimonial under the Seal of the Judge, upon Account made by an Executor or Administrator, when the Inventory exceeds the Sum of 20 l.	3—4	1—8
For the like when the Inventory does not exceed the Sum of 20 l.	3—4	1—8
For Administration and entering the Renunciation of an Executor, or any other Person, renouncing the Burden of the Execution of a Will, or Administration of Goods of an Intestate, made before the Judge.	1—4	1—4
For a Commission granted upon the Petition of the Party for receiving such Renunciation, or for receiving an Account, or any other Matter, or Thing; or to enquire concerning any Matter or Thing in remote Parts, or to any Purpose or Effect whatsoever, under the Seal of the Judge upon the aforesaid Petition.	6—8	3—4
For a Commission under the Seal of the Judge to administer the usual Oath in such a Case, to the Executor of a Will, or Administrator of Goods.	3—4	3—4
For ingrossing of every Account for the Party accounting, that the Judge's Seal may be fixed thereto, for the Acquittance of the said Accountant, when the Inventory exceeds 20 l.		3—4
For the like when the Inventory does not exceed 20 l.		1—8
For citing any Party to render an Account, or to exhibit an Inventory.			1—0
For a Decree for delivering again any Legacy, or other Sum, or Thing Judicially offered, above 20 s.	0—6	0—6
For the like, under 20 s.
For a Decree concerning an Original Writing to be re-delivered to the Party after the same has been registered.	0—6	0—6
For every Assignment of a Portion amounting to 5 l. or more.	3—4	0—6
For the like, when the Portion assign'd is under 5 l.	1—8	0—3
For drawing every Account, if it be done by the Register.		3—4
For the like, if it be done by a Proctor.			3—4
For the sight of every Will of every Person dying in the County of Leicester, proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, or Administration of Goods granted in the said Prerogative Court, shewed in the said Court of the Arch-Deaconry of Leicester.				3—4
For entering every Cause of Instance or of Office promoted.			0—4
For a Caution, commonly call'd Caveat , interposed for or against a Person claiming a Right or Interest in what Cause soever.	1—0	1—0
For the Judge's Fee for the Seal of the first Citation, without Intimation or Inhibition, in every Cause of Instance, 3 d. and for the Signing of it 1 d. And for making the same to the Register.	0—4	0—6
For finding Wax, and Trouble about fixing the Seal in every Cause or Business, excepting Processes in a Cause of Instance, to the Clerk of the Judge, 4 d.
For every Citation or Decree with Inhibition or Intimation.	1—6	1—3
For every Citatory Decree under the Seal of the Judge in every Cause at the Instance or Promotion of the Party, or the necessary Promoter.	0—6	0—6
For the Apparitor's executing every written Decree, or Citation, or Monition, or Excommunication, or Suspension, or other Mandate of the Judge, if the Party to be cited, admonished, excommunicated or suspended, &c. dwells in the Town where the Consistory is held, or within 4 Miles.
For the like, if the Party, &c. dwells above 4 Miles off, for every Mile from the Place of the Consistory.			0—4
For an authentick Certificate of the first Citation only in Causes of Instance or of Office, &c. when the Proctor certifies under an authentick Seal.			0—8
For the like, when the Apparitor certifies upon Oath.			0—4
For a Decree of Excommunication or Suspension in every Cause or Business of the Judge's Office, or at the Instance of some Party	0—6	0—6
For the Schedule of Excommunication or Suspension, to be written by the Judge's Register, and to be read by the Judge or his Surrogate.	0—6	0—6
For Denouncing the Excommunication.			0—8
For the Absolution of every Person excommunicated or suspended.	1—0	1—0
For a Fee of Contumacy of the Party excommunicated or suspended, in a Cause of Instance, to be paid to the Proctor when the Absolution is granted.			2—0
For Letters certifying the Continuance of any Person under Excommunication above 40 Days, in order to obtain the King's Writ for the taking of his Body.	6—8	3—4
For the like Certificate upon the Absolution of such a Person, in order to obtain a Writ for delivering or releasing the excommunicated Party.	3—4	1—8
For drawing a Schedule of Excommunication or Suspension in a Cause of Instance.			0—6
For constituting a Proctor in Court in what Business soever.			0—4
For an authentick Proxy exhibited by the Proctor in any Cause.			1—4
For the Proctor's Fee for Advice in the Beginning all Exhibits in every Cause aforesaid.
For the Proctor's Fee for Information upon the Merits of the Cause, in all the Causes aforesaid.
For Dismissal of the Cause in every Cause of Instance, or voluntarily promoted.	1—0	1—0
For drawing the Definitive Sentence in Writing.			3—4
For every Sentence in Writing, or pronounced in an Interlocutory Way.	6—8	5—4		2—0
For Wine when Sentence is given, 2 s.
For the Proctor's Bill of Expences, sometimes 2 s. sometimes 1 s. sometimes 6 d. according to the largeness thereof.
For a Monition to pay Expences, or to do Penance.	0—6	0—6
For the Judge's subscribing every Schedule of Penance in a Cause of Instance, and for a Copy of the same made by the Register.	1—0	1—0
For every Schedule of Penance, or Confession, or Acknowledgement of Offence enjoind any Person by the Judge out of meer Office or Duty, according to the Quality and Quantity of the Fault, and written by the Register according to the Order of the Judge.	1—0	1—0
For the Commutation of every Penance as far as, or above, 5 l. to which the Bishop has given his express Consent.	6—8	3—4
For the rest with the like Consent.	3—4	1—8
For exhibiting and allowing every Prohibition, Consultation, or Inhibition.	1—0	1—0
For the Judge's Seal to every Transmission of a Process of the Judge a Quo , that is the Judge from whom the Appeal is made.	6—8
For transmitting the Process of the Judge a Quo , and transcribing the same, to the Register more or less, according to the largeness thereof, to be taxed by the Judge ad Quem , that is, the Judge who is appealed to.
For a License to implead, or sue a Person in the Court of his Grace the Arch-Bishop.	5—0	5—0
For Letters requesting the Judge of another Jurisdiction to assist with his Authority the Judge before whom the Cause lieth.	6—8	3—4
For every Exemplification made under the Seal.	5—0	5—0
For registering every Instrument exhibited, as a Supply of Proof in a Cause of Instance; a reasonable Fee, according to the Pains of the Register, at the Pleasure of the Judge.
For searching in the Register at the Request of any Party, excepting for Acts of the Court, or Exhibits in any Cause depending.
For Letters Testimonial under the Judge's Seal, concerning any Instrument or Things found in the Register, or concerning any Matter or Thing done whatsoever.	6—8	3—4
For Letters Dimissory granted to any Person.	6—8	3—4
For Letters Testimonial concerning the Conversation of a Clerk.	1—8	1—8
For the Sequestration of the Fruits of a vacant

For the like, under 20 s.
 For a Decree concerning an Original Writing to be re-delivered to the Party after the same has been registered. ———— 0—6 0—6
 For every Assignment of a Portion amounting to 5 l. or more. ———— 3—4 0—6
 For the like, when the Portion assign'd is under 5 l. ———— 1—8 0—3
 For drawing every Account, if it be done by the Register. ———— ———— 3—4
 For the like, if it be done by a Proctor. ———— ———— 3—4
 For the sight of every Will of every Person dying in the County of Leicester, proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, or Administration of Goods granted in the said Prerogative Court, shewed in the said Court of the Arch-Deaconry of Leicester. ———— 1—4 1—4
 For Letters of Tutition or Guardianship of the Goods of any Minor, under the Seal of the Judge. ———— 2—6 2—6
 For a Bond taken by the Register for any Lawful Cause, and required by Law. ———— ———— 1—0
 For examining every Account made by an Executor or Administrator, or any other Person. ———— 3—4
 For admitting and allowing of every Deed of Gift of any of the Goods of any Person deceased, when the Judge for lawful Reasons shall think fit to allow of such a Writing. ———— 1—4 1—4
 For a Dispensation or License to solemnize Matrimony without Banns. ———— 6—8 3—4
 For a License to eat Flesh, or a Licence for a Seat in the Church, or for any other Licence or Dispensation under the Seal of the Judge. ———— 6—8 3—4
 For Letters of Admission of a School-Master to teach. ———— 2—6 2—6
 For Letters of Admission of a Curate. ———— 6—8 3—4
 For every Admission of a Midwife, or Parish-Clerk. ———— 2—6 2—6
 For an Acquittance upon the Receipt of Procurations, or Pensions, in the Arch-Deacons Visitation, to the Receiver 2 d.
 For the like, in the Bishop's Visitation, to the Receiver 4 d.
 For Citing every Rector, Vicar, Curate, Churchwarden, Assistant, and every other Person to the Visitation. ———— ———— 0—6
 For every Royal Proclamation, and for every Form of Prayer published by Royal Authority, and left in the Hands of the Incumbent or Churchwarden. ———— ———— 0—6
 For a Book of Articles delivered to the Guardians of every Church or Chapel. ———— 0—6
 For a Citation and Monition against the Churchwardens of every Parish to appear every Archidiaconal Visitation, and for the Oath of the old Churchwardens there, and receiving the Bill and A&t. ———— 0—4 0—4
 To the Judge's Clerk for writing the Bill of Presentment, in case the Churchwardens have not drawn the same at Home, 6 d.
 For the Admission and Oath of the Churchwardens newly elected, and making an A&t thereof. ———— 0—4 0—4
 For receiving and registering the Account or Copy of the Register of Persons baptized, buried, or married. ———— 0—4 0—4
 For the Copy of any Presentment made by the Register at the Request of any Party. ———— ———— 0—4
 For the first Citation and Dismission of any Person presented or convented by the meer Office of the Judge. ———— 1—0 1—0
 For granting a Day, or Time to the Churchwardens, or any other Person, to repair the Church, Chancel, or Fence of the Church-Yard, or to provide any Necessaries in the same, according to the Order of the Judge. ———— 0—6 0—6

For the like, under 20 s.
 For a Decree concerning an Original Writing to be re-delivered to the Party after the same has been registered. ———— 0—6 0—6
 For every Assignment of a Portion amounting to 5 l. or more. ———— 3—4 0—6
 For the like, when the Portion assign'd is under 5 l. ———— 1—8 0—3
 For drawing every Account, if it be done by the Register. ———— ———— 3—4
 For the like, if it be done by a Proctor. ———— ———— 3—4
 For the sight of every Will of every Person dying in the County of Leicester, proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, or Administration of Goods granted in the said Prerogative Court, shewed in the said Court of the Arch-Deaconry of Leicester. ———— 1—4 1—4
 For Letters of Tutition or Guardianship of the Goods of any Minor, under the Seal of the Judge. ———— 2—6 2—6
 For a Bond taken by the Register for any Lawful Cause, and required by Law. ———— ———— 1—0
 For examining every Account made by an Executor or Administrator, or any other Person. ———— 3—4
 For admitting and allowing of every Deed of Gift of any of the Goods of any Person deceased, when the Judge for lawful Reasons shall think fit to allow of such a Writing. ———— 1—4 1—4
 For a Dispensation or License to solemnize Matrimony without Banns. ———— 6—8 3—4
 For a License to eat Flesh, or a Licence for a Seat in the Church, or for any other Licence or Dispensation under the Seal of the Judge. ———— 6—8 3—4
 For Letters of Admission of a School-Master to teach. ———— 2—6 2—6
 For Letters of Admission of a Curate. ———— 6—8 3—4
 For every Admission of a Midwife, or Parish-Clerk. ———— 2—6 2—6
 For an Acquittance upon the Receipt of Procurations, or Pensions, in the Arch-Deacons Visitation, to the Receiver 2 d.
 For the like, in the Bishop's Visitation, to the Receiver 4 d.
 For Citing every Rector, Vicar, Curate, Churchwarden, Assistant, and every other Person to the Visitation. ———— ———— 0—6
 For every Royal Proclamation, and for every Form of Prayer published by Royal Authority, and left in the Hands of the Incumbent or Churchwarden. ———— ———— 0—6
 For a Book of Articles delivered to the Guardians of every Church or Chapel. ———— 0—6
 For a Citation and Monition against the Churchwardens of every Parish to appear every Archidiaconal Visitation, and for the Oath of the old Churchwardens there, and receiving the Bill and A&t. ———— 0—4 0—4
 To the Judge's Clerk for writing the Bill of Presentment, in case the Churchwardens have not drawn the same at Home, 6 d.
 For the Admission and Oath of the Churchwardens newly elected, and making an A&t thereof. ———— 0—4 0—4
 For receiving and registering the Account or Copy of the Register of Persons baptized, buried, or married. ———— 0—4 0—4
 For the Copy of any Presentment made by the Register at the Request of any Party. ———— ———— 0—4
 For the first Citation and Dismission of any Person presented or convented by the meer Office of the Judge. ———— 1—0 1—0
 For granting a Day, or Time to the Churchwardens, or any other Person, to repair the Church, Chancel, or Fence of the Church-Yard, or to provide any Necessaries in the same, according to the Order of the Judge. ———— 0—6 0—6

For the like Certificate upon the Absolution of such a Person, in order to obtain a Writ for delivering or releasing the excommunicated Party. ———— 3—4 1—8
 For drawing a Schedule of Excommunication or Suspension in a Cause of Instance. ———— ———— 0—6
 For constituting a Proctor in Court in what Business soever. ———— ———— 0—4
 For an authentick Proxy exhibited by the Proctor in any Cause. ———— ———— 1—4
 For the Proctor's Fee for Advice in the Beginning of a Cause, commonly call'd, A retaining Fee. ———— ———— 3—4
 For the Fee of a Proctor assigned to be the necessary Promoter of the Judge's Office or Duty, for every Day he acts in the Cause or Business. ———— ———— 2—0
 For the Proctor's Fee in any Cause, for every Court Day wherein he acts or defends in the Cause. ———— ———— 2—0
 For a Copy of the Libel in the first Court written by the Proctor for his Client, and for another Copy to be written for the adverse Party. ———— ———— 3—4
 For drawing a Libel or Articles, or any Matter in Writing, given in Causes of Instance or Office, voluntary or promoted, and for a Copy of the same to be delivered to the adverse Party in Causes of Instance, or voluntarily promoted. ———— ———— 3—4
 For a Copy of a Libel, Sentence, or any other Matter, in Causes of Instance, if the Party desires to have one under the Register's Hand. ———— ———— 2—0
 For every A&t of Court in Causes of Instance. ———— ———— 0—4
 For the Copy of every A&t, if any will have an Extra&t thereof under the Hand of the Register. ———— ———— 0—4
 For every Time the principal Party is produced in every Cause at the Instance or Promotion of the Party or necessary Promoter. ———— 0—6 0—6
 For the Examination of the principal Party upon any Matter whatsoever, done at the Instance of the other Party. ———— 0—9 0—9
 For a Copy of the Answer of the principal Party in all the Causes aforesaid. ———— ———— 1—0
 For every Time a Witness is produced in the aforesaid Causes. ———— 0—4 0—4
 For the Examination of every first Witness upon any Matter or Interrogatory. ———— 0—9 0—9
 For the like Examination of every other Witness. ———— 0—6 0—6
 For every Instrument to compel every Witness to give his Testimony in any or every Cause or Business aforesaid. ———— 1—0 1—0
 For drawing Interrogatories against the Witness produced by the adverse Party in Causes of Instance. ———— ———— 3—4
 For a Copy of Interrogatories administered in any Cause, and extracted out of the Register. ———— ———— 1—0
 For a Copy of the Attestation of every Will upon Interrogatories administered on the contrary Part in every Cause. ———— 0—4 0—4
 For a Copy of the Attestation of every Witness examined upon a Libel, or Articles, or Allegation, or any Matter whatsoever in the aforesaid Causes. ———— 0—4 0—4
 For a Commission to examine Witnesses, or to receive the Answers of the principal Party, or other Commissions in the aforesaid Causes. ———— 6—8 3—4
 For the Notary's Salary for Expediting of any Commission in remote Parts, more or less, according to his Labour or Trouble, to be taxed by the Judge. ———— ———— 6—8
 For the Judge's Fee at the Time of informing in the Cause, in every of the Causes aforesaid. ———— ———— 6—8
 For the Register's Fee attending at the same Time with the Book of the original A&ts, and

For registering every Instrument exhibited, as a Supply of Proof in a Cause of Instance; a reasonable Fee, according to the Pains of the Register, at the Pleasure of the Judge.
 For searching in the Register at the Request of any Party, excepting for A&ts of the Court, or Exhibits in any Cause depending.
 For Letters Testimonial under the Judge's Seal, concerning any Instrument or Things found in the Register, or concerning any Matter or Thing done whatsoever. ———— 6—8 3—4
 For Letters Dimissory granted to any Person. ———— 6—8 3—4
 For Letters Testimonial concerning the Conversation of a Clerk. ———— 1—8 1—8
 For the Sequestration of the Fruits of a vacant Benefice, or any other Sequestration, for what Cause soever, granted under the Seal of the Judge. ———— 6—8 3—4
 For the Relaxation of every Sequestration under the Seal of the Judge. ———— 6—8 6—8
 For the Induction of a Clerk into any Benefice Ecclesiastical to the Official of Mr. Arch-Deacon. ———— 10—0 2—4
 For a Certificate upon the Induction of every Clerk into any Ecclesiastical Benefice. ———— 1—8 1—8

WE, THOMAS, by Divine Providence, Arch-Bishop of Canterbury, Primate and Metropolitan of all England; Upon the Petition as well of the Most Noble JOHN Duke of Rutland, and other Justices of the Peace for the County of Leicester, as of our Brother the Right Reverend Father in God, WILLIAM, by Divine Permission, Lord Bishop of Lincoln, have caused to be made and perfected the above-written Table of Fees annexed to these Presents, agreeing almost in all Things with the Antient Tables of Fees for the Arch-Deaconry of Bedford and Leicester, and do approve of, and by these Presents confirm the same, so far as we lawfully can and do require it to be inviolably observed. Ordaining moreover, and strictly charging and commanding the Register of the Court of Leicester for the Time being, to take care that two Tables of the above-written Fees, not to be removed or hidden, be publicly fixed and exposed to open View, according to the Tenor of the 135th Canon, and under Pain of Suspension prescribed in the same. For the enforcing, and in the more solemn Testimony of all which, we have caused our Arch-Episcopal Seal to be set to these Presents. Dated the 26 Day of January, in the Year of our Lord 1707, and of our Translation the 14th.

Fees customarily received at Easter Visitation.

To the Judge. ————	1 4
For the Book of Articles. ————	0 6
To the Register. ————	0 8
For drawing the Presentment. ————	0 6
For receiving and filing the the Parish Register. ————	1 0
Apparitor for summoning the Visitation. ————	1 0
	5 0

At Michaelmas Visitation.

To the Judge. ————	1 4
To the Register. ————	0 8
Drawing the Presentment. ————	0 6
Apparitor. ————	1 6
	4 0

When a Form of Prayer and Proclamation is delivered, then there is one Shilling more received by the Apparitor for carrying them out.

John Rogers, Arch-Deacon of Leicester.